ORDER OF DETENTION PENDING TRIAL

An initial appearance and arraignment were held in this case on January 24, 2007. Cynthia Davidson, Assistant United States Attorney, appeared on behalf of Matthew Morris, representing the government, and Jonathan Moffatt, Assistant Federal Defender, was present representing the defendant. Interpreter, Roberto Mendoza, was present via telephone. The defendant was present. The government moved for detention because BICE has placed a detainer against the defendant. Mr. Moffatt stated he has explained to his client that there is a detainer lodged against him and that the defendant has signed a Waiver of Detention Hearing. 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(2)(B). For good cause, and by agreement of the defendant, this detention hearing is waived and the defendant is detained.

The defendant is aware of his rights to a prompt detention hearing and to require the government to meet its burden of proving that no conditions of release exist which will reasonably assure his appearance in court and the safety of the community. The defendant knows that if his detention hearing is waived he will remain in custody while it is continued. The defendant acknowledged in open court that he understands his rights and the consequences of waiving his detention hearing.

For good cause shown, the defendant's request not to contest, and to waive the detention hearing is hereby GRANTED.

It is therefore ORDERED that:

- (1) Defendant be detained.;
- (2) Defendant be committed to the custody of the Attorney General for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal;
- (3) Defendant be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with counsel; and
- (4) On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the government, the person in charge of the corrections facility in which the defendant is confined deliver the defendant to a United States marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with any court proceeding.
